Category:Indian filmsHome Our Publications MEDIA STATEMENT - The United Nations, the Holy See, Australia and European Human Rights Law The United Nations, the Holy See and Australian authorities have all confirmed to the National Commission that the arrest of the cardinal of the Archdiocese of Melbourne, Archbishop Denis Hart, is wholly justified on human rights grounds. The International

Committee of the Red Cross has already observed that there has been "an act of contempt of the Highest Courts" with reference to Archbishop Hart. The ICRC is obligated under international human rights law not to take any act of retaliation to protect a person who has been legitimately arrested by the judicial authorities. The ICRC has, therefore, deemed it its duty to immediately intervene in order to provide "all necessary care and support" to Archbishop Hart while he is in detention and, as an essential element of this duty, to inform the judicial authorities that it has received a request from Archbishop Hart that he be allowed to see his legal representative in order to be able to explain the grave allegations against him.
